Britten Choral Guide - Boosey & Hawkes

Rejoice in the Lamb, A Ceremony of Carols, Hymn to the Virgin, Hymn to St Cecilia, Jubilate Deo in C and others have tended to obscure the fuller picture of Britten's choral output and, if nothing else, I hope that this new practical guide will encourage choral directors to ...

A Ceremony of carols

A Ceremony of Carols Benjamin Britten (1913-1976) Benjamin Britten's hugely popular Ceremony of A Carols was inspired by his discovery of The English Galaxy of Shorter Poems and was composed in part while returning by ship to Britain from the United States It is an unusual setting for treble voices and harp; Britten had intended to write a harp

Celestial Seasons

Britten selected texts based on old English carols and poems, many anonymous and mostly dating from the 15th and 16th centuries Britten conceived of the work as a ceremony, and it opens and closes with processions set to the plainsong chant "Hodie Christus natus est" in unison voices This chant also forms the basis of the harp Interlude
